

General Topic: World Literature

Lesson Overview:

World Literature introduces students to literary works from different cultures and eras, enhancing understanding of diverse perspectives, themes, and writing styles.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Genres in World Literature – Novel, poetry, drama, short story, epic
2. Cultural Context – How history, traditions, and beliefs shape literature
3. Literary Analysis – Identifying themes, symbols, tone, and character development

Real-Life Example:

Reading The Little Prince (France) helps students explore universal themes like love, friendship, and human nature while understanding French cultural influences.

Remember This!

- World literature broadens your mind, allowing you to see the world through others' stories.

General Topic: Advanced Reading Comprehension

Lesson Overview:

Advanced reading comprehension develops the ability to analyze, interpret, and evaluate complex texts for deeper meaning and critical thinking.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Inference and Prediction – Reading between the lines to anticipate outcomes
2. Evaluating Arguments – Identifying bias, logic, and evidence in a text
3. Summarizing and Synthesizing – Condensing information while retaining key points

Real-Life Example:

When reading a news article about climate change, students evaluate the sources and data to decide whether the information is reliable.

Remember This!

- Strong comprehension is more than understanding words—it's about grasping meaning and intention.

General Topic: Academic Writing and Thesis Skills

Lesson Overview:

Academic writing focuses on structured, evidence-based communication, preparing students for research projects and higher education.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Structure of Academic Papers – Introduction, body, conclusion
2. Thesis Statement Development – Creating a clear and arguable main idea
3. Citations and Referencing – APA, MLA, or Chicago style to avoid plagiarism

- APA

Byrne, A. (2008). Web 2.0 strategy in libraries and information services. Australian Library Journal, 57 (4), 365-376.

- Chicago Manual of Style

Byrne, A. 2008. Web 2.0 strategy in libraries and information services. Australian Library Journal, 57 (4): 365-376.

- MLA

Byrne, Alex. "Web 2.0 strategy in libraries and information services." Australian Library Journal 57.4 (2008): 365-376.

Reference: <http://www.slideshare.net/PrakashAryal1/referencing-styles-1>

Real-Life Example:

Students write a research paper on renewable energy, using credible sources and proper citation styles to support their claims.

Remember This!

- Academic writing demands clarity, structure, and evidence—never opinion without proof.

General Topic: Public Speaking

Lesson Overview:

Public speaking trains students to effectively present ideas in front of an audience with confidence, clarity, and engagement.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Speech Organization – Introduction, body, conclusion
2. Voice and Body Language – Tone, pitch, gestures, and posture
3. Overcoming Stage Fright – Practice, breathing techniques, and audience connection

Real-Life Example:

A student delivers a persuasive speech during a school debate, using confident tone and strong arguments to win the audience's support.

Remember This!

- Public speaking is not just about talking—it's about connecting with people and inspiring them.