

General Topic: Reading, Listening, and Viewing Comprehension

Lesson Overview:

Reading, listening, and viewing comprehension involve understanding, interpreting, and evaluating texts, spoken materials, and multimedia. These skills help students extract meaning, make inferences, and respond critically to different forms of communication.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Reading Comprehension Strategies

- Skimming and scanning
- Identifying main ideas and supporting details
- Making inferences and predictions

2. Listening Skills

- Active listening
- Note-taking for understanding

3. Viewing Skills

- Analyzing visual elements (images, videos, infographics)
- Identifying persuasive techniques in media

Real-Life Example:

Listening to a podcast about climate change and summarizing its key points for a school project.

Remember This!

- Comprehension is more than just understanding words—it's about grasping the meaning and purpose behind them.

General Topic: Vocabulary Development

Lesson Overview:

Vocabulary development is the process of learning new words, their meanings, and how to use them effectively. A strong vocabulary improves both communication and comprehension in all subjects.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Context Clues: Using surrounding words to infer meaning

2. Word Formation: Prefixes, suffixes, roots

3. Synonyms, Antonyms, Homonyms

4. Academic and Technical Vocabulary

Real-Life Example:

Encountering the word “photosynthesis” in science class and breaking it down: “photo” (light) + “synthesis” (putting together).

Remember This!

- The more words you know, the more ideas you can express and understand.

General Topic: Anglo-American Literature

Lesson Overview:

Anglo-American literature includes works from English-speaking countries like the UK and the USA. These texts reflect cultural values, historical events, and universal themes.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Genres: Poetry, short stories, novels, plays
2. Literary Devices: Metaphor, symbolism, imagery, irony
3. Historical and Cultural Context

Real-Life Example:

Reading Romeo and Juliet and discussing how themes of love and conflict apply to modern relationships.

Remember This!

- Literature opens a window into the thoughts, feelings, and experiences of people from different times and places.

General Topic: Writing Process and Composition

Lesson Overview:

The writing process involves planning, drafting, revising, and editing texts. Composition skills are essential for expressing ideas clearly in narrative, expository, persuasive, or descriptive forms.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Stages of Writing: Prewriting, drafting, revising, editing, publishing
2. Types of Composition: Narrative, descriptive, expository, persuasive
3. Cohesion and Coherence: Using transitions, logical flow

Real-Life Example:

Writing a persuasive essay on banning single-use plastics, supported by statistics and examples.

Remember This!

- Good writing is rewriting—ideas become clearer the more you refine them.

General Topic: Oral Language and Grammar Awareness

Lesson Overview:

Oral language skills involve speaking clearly and effectively, while grammar awareness ensures correct usage of language structures in both speech and writing.

Key Concepts and Subtopics:

1. Grammar Structures: Tenses, subject-verb agreement, sentence types
2. Oral Communication Skills: Pronunciation, intonation, audience engagement
3. Formal vs. Informal Language

Real-Life Example:

Delivering a short speech in class using correct grammar and engaging body language.

Remember This!

- Language is most powerful when it's both correct and confident.
